

This lab has 2 exercises please make sure to submit both in a zipped folder named username_lab6.zip.

Exercise 1:

You have to create a simple form as the image below

A sample web form with a light blue background. The form contains the following elements:

- First name: A text input field with a light gray border and a light gray background.
- Last name: A text input field with a light gray border and a light gray background.
- E-mail: A text input field with a light gray border and a light gray background.
- Phone Number: A text input field with a light gray border and a light gray background.
- Gender: A radio button group with two options: "Male" and "Female".
- City: A dropdown menu with a light gray border and a light gray background, showing "--please choose an option--".
- Address: A text input field with a light gray border and a light gray background.
- Submit: A button with a light gray border and a light gray background.

If you have a better design idea, just do it! Else please make it the same as the above image.

Exercise2:

In this exercise you will create T-shirt designer using html forms, css, and javascript.

Design your T-Shirt Form

color:  black

Choose your size

☒ Small
☐ Medium
☐ Large
☐ X-Large

Choose your brand

☒ Nike
☐ Adidas

Add your touch

☒ Text

T-Shirt Design

Color
Pink

Size
Small

Brand
Nike

Text
Hello

Image

Payment
Cash

Note: you have to create only one HTML file for both pages. (Hint: change style.display in js to make it work).

If the image checkbox is checked, then a url must be typed in the input field, and the image should be displayed in the second page after clicking next.

Add your touch

☒ Text
Hello

☒ Image

Text

hello

Image

The Back button should take you back to the image designer.

Hint: for javascript make a function for each fieldset to get the chosen values, then use these functions in one function to display the T-shirt selected information.

Good Luck!
